

Ignatz, a reformed petty criminal, acts as Pippa's surrogate father while her parents are away.

Nine-year-old Pippa arranges a romance between her handicapped teacher and Ignatz, but will her good intentions compensate for her bungling?

Though Pippa tackles dangers and grown-up problems with courage and imagination, can she escape the cruelty of the school bully?

---